ASSESSMENT

Assessments and grades in this course are a measure of student learning and achievement. All course work (including graded and non-graded assignments) is related to curriculum standards and are important for student learning. Assessment will be ongoing and will include participation in daily classroom activities, preparedness for class (homework), quizzes, unit tests, projects, and the final divisional exam.

CRITERIA FOR ASSESSMENT

Assessments are created based on each learning target. Clear criteria and expectations will be established before students show their learning. Students will know specifically what they will be assessed on in order to best demonstrate their learning. For each task, students will be given a set of evaluation guidelines in order to help put forth their best work. It is YOUR RESPONSIBILITY to examine the guidelines and assignment criteria in advance to ensure you have the opportunity to ask any/all questions. Remember, if you need clarification on an assignment, chances are that a number of your peers have the same questions, so PLEASE ASK!

ABSENCES & ASSESSMENT

Should you be absent for whatever reason, it is YOUR RESPONSIBILITY to check the Missed Assignment Folder, take responsibility for all missed work, and take down/get any missed notes, information, etc. Regular attendance is crucial for success in this course.

FINAL GRADES

Student learning is ongoing; final grades will reflect the most recent and valid assessment of student learning/achievement for the grading time period. Students will receive Summative Assessments (used to measure a student's understanding with a mark) within the units of study. As per section 4.3 the Manitoba Provincial Report Card Policy and Guidelines Evaluation document, a percentage scale is used to report overall subject grades. The final grade in this course will reflect the cumulative compilation of each of the units covered.

COURSE WORK (Term Work) = 70% + FINAL DIVISION EXAM = 30% Total = 100%

COURSE WORK may include any of the following:

1. DAILY WORK: will be assigned. Students are expected to finish this during the class time provided and hand it in or be ready for discussion purposes. If students do not finish in the time provided they will be expected to complete it as homework.
2. HOMEWORK: Most of the topics that correspond with the curriculum will be covered in class discussion which can be supplemented by notetaking. However, there will be instances in which it is necessary to complete work, do assignments or to study at home. All homework must be handed in or be ready for the appropriate due date.
3. PROJECTS: may be assigned for some units. They may be assigned as a group or individually. Projects must be handed in whole and fully complete before they will be marked. This may include but is not limited to: oral presentations, multimedia presentations, essays, short stories, critiques, reviews, journals, book reports, and hand-in evaluation assignments.

- ❖ All projects will be assessed using rubrics and checklists. Students are encouraged to consult the rubric in order to maximize success. Students will self-evaluate, peer evaluate and have evaluation done by the teacher.
- ❖ All hand-in evaluation assignments and projects are due for the BEGINNING of class on the assigned date. If there is a problem you are expected to discuss this with me BEFOREHAND to make other arrangements. I cannot help you if I do not know what the problem is.
- ❖ Late evaluation assignments and projects will receive the mark of a ZERO, until the assignment is handed in on a new assigned date. If assignments are continuously being handed in late or not handed in at all a meeting and action plan will be set forth between students, parents and teacher. All assignments must be handed in.

- ❖ If assignments are not fully completed or handed in by the given due date, a deduction in marks will apply. Upon teacher discretion a maximum of 5% may be deducted for every day the assignment is not turned in. If the assignment is not turned in after one week the assignment will receive a mark of zero.

4. QUIZZES & TESTS: will be given during some units when students need to show their understanding. Students will be responsible for studying on their own time. Any tests or quizzes missed due to an absence will be written the next day of attendance – it may have to be arranged to be written at noon hour or some viable time period.

5. FINAL EXAM: Students will be given a final division exam at the end of the course. This will involve “Responding to Text” questions along with a “Written Task” in which students will choose a form of writing. The Final Exam will be written on the date and time scheduled.
