COURSE OVERVIEW

Food and Nutrition: The food and nutrition area of study teaches about healthy relationships with food through theoretical and practical food experiences. A study of food and nutrition can expose students to accurate information and provide opportunities for them to gain competence in making informed choices. The learning outcomes develop skills, knowledge, and understanding of basic food preparation and nutrition.

Clothing and Textiles: Clothing and textiles courses create awareness of the role that clothing, and textiles play in our daily lives. The learning outcomes develop skills, knowledge, and understanding as students participate in learning activities that allow them to express themselves through designing, producing, and evaluating finished textile projects

EVALUATION

All course work and tests will be worth 100%. There will be formative and summative assessments used throughout the course. In accordance with the Manitoba Provincial Report Cards, students will receive a percentage grade as well as a numerical grade from 1-4.

This is a hands-on course and students are expected to try their hardest. If students miss a cooking day, they may be required to complete it on their own time at home. If students fall behind in sewing, they will be required to come in at lunch to catch up. Students cannot take sewing projects home to work on them.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

1. If at any time you are unsure about an assignment it is the student's responsibility to ask for clarification.
2. Students are expected to be on time for class.
3. Students are expected to show respect to fellow students and teacher.
4. Students are responsible for all homework and notes which were missed while they were absent. Students are encouraged to ask a classmate upon returning to catch up on the materials covered during their absence.
5. If a student has an excused absence on the day of a test, they will write it on the day of their return, either in class or at lunch. If a student is away on the day an assignment is due, hand it in on the day of their return. Please inform the teacher if you plan on being absent.
6. Cell phones and iPods are not permitted in class.
