ACADEMIC ASSESSMENT

Assessment will be ongoing, and based largely on effort, and fulfilling each assignments requirements based on provided rubrics. Peer and self-assessment will also be used throughout the year. For each task, you will be given a set of evaluation guidelines in order to help you put forth your best work. It is your responsibility to examine the guidelines & assignment criteria in advance to ensure you have the opportunity to ask any and all questions. Remember, if you need clarification on an assignment, please do not hesitate to ask!

The work in this course will reflect the cumulative compilation of each of the topics covered. As per section 4.3 the Manitoba Provincial Report Card Policy and Guidelines Evaluation document, a percentage scale is used to report overall subject grades.

Course Work 70%
Final Project 30%

BEHAVIOURAL ASSESSMENT

Students will receive a letter grade on their report cards for the following:

- Personal Management: Uses class time effectively; works independently; completes homework and assignments on time.
- Active Participation in Learning: Participates in class activities; sets learning goals.
- Social Responsibility: Works well with others; resolves conflicts appropriately; respects self, others and environment; contributes in a positive way.

RULES AND EXPECTATIONS

Homework: You won't have homework every night, but when it is assigned, it is expected to be completed on time. Homework checks are done regularly to assess whether you (the student) have tried each portion of the assignment.

Absent: If you are absent, please connect with me to find out what you missed. You are also responsible for making up all missed work.

Extra Help: Extra help will always be available when you need it. I am generally available before and after school, as well as at lunch hour. Please make arrangements with me if this is something you are needing.

Technology in the Classroom: Cellular devices and any other technology must be put away during class time. There may be times where occasional use is permitted, however, this will be up to teacher discretion. Improper use may result in a loss of certain privileges.

Academic Dishonesty: Academic dishonesty, including, but not limited to inappropriate collaboration, plagiarism, and cheating is a severe offence and will be dealt with according to the policy outlined in the school handbook.

Late Policy: Incomplete work and late assignments may be deducted in marks, as per McCreary School's late policy, developed in accordance with the Provincial Assessment Policy.
